Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C.

121:

- I. Claims 1-12 and 17-22, drawn to a ratcheting device, classified in class 182, subclass 3.
- II. Claims 13-16, drawn to a method of securing an anchorage device, classified in class 248, subclass 500.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case the product of claim 1 can be used with more than a single point of connection, and the process as claimed can be used on a product not requiring a tripod, as set forth in claims 9 and 17.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species: figs 1 and 2, with the connecting member of either figs. 1A or 1B and the anchorage member of either Fig.1 or 11. The species are independent or distinct because of the claimed distinct connecting and anchorage members.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, 1 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).
